

Digital NC Scavenger Hunt Answers

1. How many students were in the senior class that year? 70
2. What sport had both a boy's and girl's team? Basketball
3. Did any African American students attend Durham High School this year? No
4. Who was the yearbook dedicated too this year? What global event was happening this year? Durham High School Boys in the Armed Forces. World War II.
5. What changes to the physical education classes were made to support the war effort? (Hint: Page 129). Students were undergoing training for military service.
6. Did any African American students attend Durham High School this year? No
7. Under the senior class section, find the names McKissick and Scurlock, and under the junior class, find the name Brame. What happened during the school year? The high school was desegregated.
8. Are these students shown in any club, sports, or committee pictures? What does this mean? Although African American students were allowed to attend Durham High School, they were limited in their activities and still not treated equally.